STAT

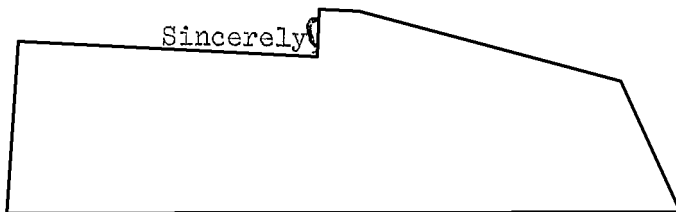

Since General Walters wrote to you on 14 August, we have explored job opportunities for you with all of the Agency officials who might possibly have an interest in your substantial background and experience. We are sorry that this extensive review did not result in our identifying a position at this time that would take advantage of your offer to serve with the Agency.

We appreciate your interest and regret that our response could not be favorable.

Sincerely,

STAT

Deputy Director of Personnel

STAT

Thank you for your letter of 2 August 1972 enclosing your resume. I have referred your papers to our Director of Personnel who will ensure that appropriate Agency officials review your excellent qualifications. As soon as this review has been completed, we will get in touch with you further. I would be less than candid, though, if I did not advise you that our vacancies are very limited at this time due to reductions in our personnel strength.

Your interest in being of service to this Agency is appreciated and you may be sure your resume will receive every consideration.

Faithfully,

/s/ Vernon A. Walters
